JOURNAL OF RETAILING

SUBJECT INDEX

1950 to 1960

ACCOUNTING AND CONTROL

Centralized Cashiering in Self-Selection Aids Control, Ralph H. Ely, Jr., Summer 1960, 67

(The) Challenge of Merchandise Management Accounting, Editorial Board, Spring 1958, 1

Control—Key to Profit, S. D. Astor, Fall 1960, 138

(A) Critical Analysis of Merchandise Management Accounting, Gordon B. Cross, Spring 1958, 21

(The) Effect of Merchandise Management Accounting on Expense-Making Decisions, Herman Radolf, Spring 1958, 43

(The) Historical Background of Merchandise Management Accounting, Elmer O. Schaller, Spring 1958, 16

Is Unit Control Essential to Women's Apparel Stores?, T. Dart Ellsworth and Harry Steinberger, Winter 1954–1955, 153

Merchandise Management Accounting as a Tool for Merchandising, Bernard W. Smith, Spring 1958, 38

JOURNAL OF RETAILING

SUBJECT INDEX

1950 to 1960

ACCOUNTING AND CONTROL

Centralized Cashiering in Self-Selection Aids Control, Ralph H. Ely, Jr., Summer 1960, 67

(The) Challenge of Merchandise Management Accounting, Editorial Board, Spring 1958, 1

Control—Key to Profit, S. D. Astor, Fall 1960, 138

(A) Critical Analysis of Merchandise Management Accounting, Gordon B. Cross, Spring 1958, 21

(The) Effect of Merchandise Management Accounting on Expense-Making Decisions, Herman Radolf, Spring 1958, 43

(The) Historical Background of Merchandise Management Accounting, Elmer O. Schaller, Spring 1958, 16

Is Unit Control Essential to Women's Apparel Stores?, T. Dart Ellsworth and Harry Steinberger, Winter 1954–1955, 153

Merchandise Management Accounting as a Tool for Merchandising, Bernard W. Smith, Spring 1958, 38

Merchandise Management Accounting Should Supplement Expense Center Accounting, Kenneth P. Mages, Spring 1958, 30
(The) Moral Justification for "Lifo," Raymond F. Copes, Summer 1950, 72–74
Objectives and Basic Principles of Merchandise Management Accounting, Robert I. Jones, Spring 1958, 2
Small Independent Retailers Need a Training Program in Retail Accounting, J. K. Stoner, Summer 1954, 57

ADVERTISING AND DISPLAY

(The) Advertising Budget: National and Local, A. M. Millholland, Summer 1957, 99
Advertising Overhead in Retailing, Lawrence X. Tarpey, Winter 1960–1961, 179
Against Sluggers: Bigger and Better Weapons, Karl F. Moore, Summer 1950, 56–64
Are Your Ads "Guilty as Charged?", Karen R. Gillespie, Fall 1958, 127
Co-ordination of Advertising with Display and Personal Selling, T. Dart Ellsworth and Katherine Mitchell, Fall 1956, 105
Daytime—The Retailer's Television Time, Ted Kaufmann, Summer 1956, 76
Do You Tie-in Display with Advertising?, 1952 Day Graduate Class, School of Retailing, Winter 1951, 185
Fixtures for Self-Selection in Soft Goods, Daniel Schwartzman, Summer 1960, 88
Fur Law Changes Fur Ads—But Not Enough!, Karen R. Gillespie, Winter 1952, 145
How Fashionable Is Glove Advertising During the Easter Season?, Karen R. Gillespie, Summer 1953, 67
M. E. Blatt Company Takes to the Air, S. I. Abelow, Winter 1952, 155
More Light and Less Heat in Co-operative Advertising, Joseph Lorin, Fall 1959, 147
Store Press Publicists and their Work on the Women's Pages, Steven J. Shaw, Winter 1956–1957, 166
Television Advertising as Viewed by Retailers, Jack B. Landis and Thomas E. Coffin, Spring 1956, 17
Why Retailers Bypass Television, Irving Settel, Winter 1955–1956, 180
Window Shopping for Facts at Christmastime, 1953, Carl F. Lebowitz, Spring 1954, 33
Yardstick for Jewelry Advertising, Karen R. Gillespie, Fall 1954, 103
You Sell Freedom When You Sell Major Appliances, George T. Mortland, Spring 1953, 37

AUTOMATION

Automation and Mechanization of Materials Handling, Milton Woll, Spring 1959, 37
Automation on the Selling Floor, Robert H. Myers, Spring 1959, 11
Current Equipment for Textile Testing, William H. Masterson, Spring 1959, 51
(The) Electronic Potential in Retailing, Robert I. Jones and John R. Spellman, Spring 1959, 2
European Merchants Look at Automation, Derek Knee, Spring 1959, 31
Future of Automation in Retailing, Gordon B. Cross, Spring 1959, 54
How Machines Improve Merchandising, Bernard W. Smith and Herman Radolf, Spring 1959, 45
Promise of Automation in Accounting and Control, Ralph H. Ely, Jr., Spring 1959, 27
Why the Retailing Lag in Adopting Automation, Editorial Board, Spring 1959, 1

BRANCH STORES

Are Branch Stores Overexpanding?, T. Dart Ellsworth, Winter 1952, 159
Branch Specialty Stores—Panacea or Problem?, DeFord C. Mills, Summer 1958, 53
(The) Branch-Store Supervisor—A New Training Field, T. D. Ellsworth and Jeanne S. Hulquist, Winter 1956–1957, 157
Hecht Company Branches Out, C. B. McMath, Jr., Spring 1952, 9
Planning Your Branch Store, Robert G. Axtell, Fall 1954, 115
(The) Retailer's Use of Census Tracts, Sidney Cohen, Spring 1956, 40
Trends in Branch-Store Organization, Paul E. Smith, Fall 1956, 123

CHAIN STORES

Chain Store Human Relations, S. I. Spector, Winter 1954–1955, 161
(The) Local Nature of Chain-Store Operations (part of a series of four articles on Economic Characteristics of Retail Trade), Jules Backman, Winter 1956–1957, 175
Merchandise Planning Organizations in Department Store Chains, Richard M. Hill, Summer 1959, 73

Organizing Chain Variety Stores to Sell More Goods, DeFord C. Mills, Summer 1959, 65
Should Department Stores Open Chains of Specialty Stores?, E. B. Weiss, Winter 1951, 163

CONSUMER CO-OPERATIVES

Case History of a Consumer Co-operative, Dwight Gentry, Summer 1956, 61
(The) Co-operative Department Store: Outgrowth of Filene's Marketing Thought, Martin L. Bell, Part I, Summer 1958, 82; Part II, Fall 1958, 154

CONSUMER RESEARCH STUDIES

Are Outpost Customers Different?, T. Dart Ellsworth, Summer 1953, 57
Are Walkouts Too High Among Lower Fifth Avenue Shoppers?, T. Dart Ellsworth, Fall 1953, 101
Ask Your Customers, Research Division, New York University School of Retailing, Fall 1951, 123
Campus Shopping Patterns, Donald F. Blankertz, Ralph F. Breyer, and Charles S. Goodman, Summer 1954, 71
Do Christmas Catalogues Stimulate Purchasing?, Robert J. Robichaud and Sallie Sewell, Spring 1960, 1
Do You Know or Are You Guessing?, T. Dart Ellsworth, Gilda Lehr, and Phillip M. Bara, Fall 1952, 97
Handling Customer Returns, Stanley L. Willer, Winter 1954, 175
Impact of Ohrbach's on 34th Street Shopping Traffic, T. Dart Ellsworth and Jeanne S. Hulquist, Fall 1955, 105
Impact of Shopping Centers on Trade in Downtown Cincinnati, Charles H. Hindersman, Winter 1959–1960, 185
Introducing Tippie, V.I.C., A Study of the Manhattan Business Girl, Research Division, New York University School of Retailing, Fall 1951, 109
Manhattan Male Shoppers Evaluate Store Service, T. Dart Ellsworth and Jeanne S. Hulquist, Winter 1954–1955, 141
Research Study of Consumer Loyalty, Alan S. Donnahoe, Spring 1956, 14
What Happened to Loeser's Customers, T. Dart Ellsworth, Spring 1954, 1
Who Shops on 34th Street and Lower Fifth Avenue? T. Dart Ellsworth and Jeanne S. Hulquist, Fall 1954, 93
Why Customers Return Furniture, T. D. Ellsworth and Jeanne S. Hulquist, Spring 1955, 1

(See also Customer Attitudes, Customer Services, Downtown Shopping, Shopping Centers, Trading Stamps, and Author Index: Ellsworth, T. Dart.)

CUSTOMER ATTITUDES AND HABITS

Collection Methods in Retailing, John W. Johnson, Winter 1960–1961, 196
Customer Viewpoint as a Guide to Store Operation, Gordon H. Stedman, Fall 1953, 135
Customer's Part in Service, Gordon B. Cross, Spring 1953, 27
Determining Attitudes and Habits of Retail Shoppers, Gordon H. Stedman, Fall 1951, 133
How Customer Demand for Rugs is Changing, Isabel B. Wingate, Fall 1958, 133
Impact of Shopping Centers on Trade in Downtown Cincinnati, Charles H. Hindersman, Winter 1959–1960, 185
Make Salesmen of Your Customers, Gladys Babson Hannaford, Spring 1950, 9
Mr. Retailer, What Do You Know About Your Customers?, Donald F. Blankertz, Spring 1950, 28
(A) Neglected Market—The Older Customer, Robert K. Otterbourg, Summer 1955, 67
Offstreet Parking to Attract Downtown Shoppers, Charles E. Stonier, Fall 1960, 145
(The) Profit Potential in Customer Leisure and Mobility, Samuel Feinberg, Winter 1959–1960, 178
Research Study of Consumer Loyalty, Alan S. Donnahoe, Spring 1956, 14
Sharpening Your Store Image, Robert H. Myers, Fall 1960, 129
Up-to-Date Look at Consumer-Rating Agencies, Eugene R. Beem, Spring 1952, 15
We Believe in Customer Participation, Naomi R. Domer, Winter 1950, 148

CUSTOMER SERVICES

Can Stores Curtail Services Without Losing Customers?, T. Dart Ellsworth and Katherine Mitchell, Winter 1955–1956, 174
Collection Methods in Retailing, John W. Johnson, Winter 1960–1961, 196
Customer Preference Clinics, Frederic H. Rahr and Elbridge B. Foskett (as told to Sallie Sewell), Summer 1955, 55

Customer's Part in Service, Gordon B. Cross, Spring 1953, 27
Handling Customer Returns, Stanley L. Willer, Winter 1954–1955, 175
How Are You Handling the Parking Problem?, Gordon H. Stedman, Summer 1952, 69
Offstreet Parking to Attract Downtown Shoppers, Charles E. Stonier, Fall 1960, 145
Sans—A Simplified Account-Numbering System, George G. O'Brien, Henry F. Sherwood and Richard E. Trueman, Spring 1960, 19
Special Services for Latin-American Shoppers, Steven J. Shaw, Winter 1954–1955, 179
What Is Your Store Doing About Returns?, Research Department, New York University School of Retailing, Fall 1950, 101
What Price Services?, James W. Baker, Summer 1956, 86

DISCOUNT HOUSES

Discount House Problem, Richard E. Westervelt, Summer 1954, 69
Discount Selling by the "Legitimate" Retailers, Robert E. Dodge, Winter 1957–1958, 182
How Discount-House Selling Has Influenced Department Stores, Robert E. Dodge, Summer 1960, 97
(The) Retailing Revolution: Why and Whither?, Alfred R. Oxenfeldt, Fall 1960, 157
Services Offered by Discount Houses in Metropolitan New York, Claire M. Gross, Spring 1956, 1
Why Department Stores Can Meet Discount House Competition, Winter 1960–1961, 207

DOWNTOWN SHOPPING AND DEPARTMENT STORES

Are Walkouts Too High Among Lower Fifth Avenue Shoppers?, T. Dart Ellsworth, Fall 1953, 101
Competing Retail Systems: The Shopping Center and the Central Business District, Paul E. Smith and Eugene J. Kelley, Spring 1960, 11
How Department Heads Spend Their In-Store Time, Robert M. Strahl, Winter 1960–1961, 207
How Discount-House Shopping Has Influenced Department Stores, Robert E. Dodge, Summer 1960, 97
Impact of Ohrbach's on 34th Street Shopping Traffic, T. Dart Ellsworth and Jeanne S. Hulquist, Fall 1955, 105
Impact of Shopping Centers on Trade in Downtown Cincinnati, Charles H. Hindersman, Winter 1959, 185
Offstreet Parking to Attract Downtown Shoppers, Charles Stonier, Fall 1960, 145
(The) Replanning of Center-City Shopping Districts, George Fisk, Summer 1959, 80
Revitalization of New York, T. Dart Ellsworth and Katherine S. Mitchell, Spring 1957, 1
Revival of Downtown Shopping Districts, Paul H. Nystrom, Fall 1958, 129
Self-Selection Buying in Department and Specialty Stores, William J. Regan, Summer 1960, 90
Space Planning in Department Stores—An Exploratory Approach, Jack S. Wolf, Winter 1960–1961, 189
Who Shops on 34th Street and Lower Fifth Avenue?, T. Dart Ellsworth and Jeanne S. Hulquist, Fall 1954, 93
Why Department Stores Can Meet Discount House Competition, Barkev Kibarian, Winter 1960–1961, 207

ECONOMICS

Advance Price Notification as an Anti-Inflationary Measure, Reuben E. Slesinger, Spring 1960, 42
Are Retail Stores Inviting Regulation?, T. Dart Ellsworth, Fall 1952, 111
Billionaires Now! What Next?, T. Dart Ellsworth and Evelyn Dawn Fraser, Winter 1951, 169
(A) Common-Sense Approach to Increased Retail Profits, George C. Engel, Spring 1960, 27
(The) Crisis in Retailing, Victor Lebow, Spring 1957, 17
Do Retailers Need Tax Relief on Non-Installment Receivables?, E. J. Blakeley and William R. Welke, Winter 1960–1961, 189
Economic Characteristics of Retail Trade: Size and Volume (part of a series), Jules Backman, Fall 1956, 113 (for other articles, see Backman in Author Index)
Forced Consumption—The Prescription for 1956, Victor Lebow, Winter 1955–1956, 166
Forecasting Economic Activity, Reuben E. Slesinger, Winter 1958–1959, 221
Forecasting Retail Sales, T. J. Sielaff, Summer 1955, 91

How to Work with Other People's Money, Norman A. Jackson, Fall 1956, 129
Impact of Competition on Retailing in 1954, Victor Lebow, Spring 1954, 15
In Defense of Bigness in Retailing, Gordon B. Cross, Fall 1957, 138
(A) Malthusian Theory for Retailers, Victor Lebow, Winter 1957–1958, 184
Price Competition in 1955, Victor Lebow, Spring 1955, 5
(The) Profit Potential in Customer Leisure and Mobility, John M. Rathmell, Winter 1959–1960, 178
(The) Pursuit of Profits, Gordon B. Cross, Fall 1956, 121
(The) Responsibilities of Bigness, Gordon B. Cross, Fall 1955, 115
Retailer-Producer Versus Producer-Retailer, Robert Henry, Fall 1957, 132
Retailers Increase Sales Productivity of Invested Dollars, Research Division, New York University School of Retailing, Winter 1950, 141
(The) Retailer's Use of Census Tracts, Sidney Cohen, Spring 1956, 40
Small-Town Monopoly, William T. Kelley, Summer 1955, 63
What To Do About the "Cost Squeeze," Reavis Cox, Winter 1959–1960, 169
Will Big Stores Crush Small Stores?, Lawrence C. Lockley, Spring 1950, 25

EDUCATION

Does Professional Education in Retailing Pay Off?, Charles M. Edwards, Jr., Winter 1960–1961, 169
Improving Sales Training in the Classroom, Richard M. Baker, Jr., Spring 1955, 33
Is Professional Training in Retailing Worthwhile?, Research Department, New York University School of Retailing, Summer 1951, 53
Retailers, It's Your Move, A Study of College Students' Preferences for Careers in Six Major Industries, Jack Mason and Edward L. Slater, Summer 1952, 49
Retailing Club, Amelia L. Klepp, Winter 1952, 175
Retailing Executives Rate College Courses, Karen R. Gillespie, Fall 1960, 163
Undergraduate Four-Year Co-operative Retailing College Course, Stuart J. Higginbottom, Fall 1951, 143
Why Do College Graduates Leave Retailing?, T. Dart Ellsworth and Jeanne S. Hulquist, Winter 1955–1956, 157

FABRICS AND FURS

Blending Natural and Synthetic Fibers in Men's Furnishings, Isabel B. Wingate and Ralph S. Burkholder, Fall 1957, 119
Calling All Fur Retailers, Karen R. Gillespie, Winter 1951, 157
Case for Natural Fibers in Men's Furnishings, Isabel B. Wingate and Ralph S. Burkholder, Spring 1954, 29
Current Equipment for Textile Testing, William H. Masterson, Spring 1959, 51
Customers Versus Colleague Ties Among Retail Furriers, Louis Kriesberg, Winter 1953–1954, 173
Fur Law Changes Fur Ads—But Not Enough!, Karen R. Gillespie, Winter 1952, 145
Textile Testing with Limited Equipment, Isabel B. Wingate, Summer 1950, 80

FINANCE

(A) Common-Sense Approach to Increased Retail Profits, George C. Engel, Spring 1960, 27
Comparative Analysis of Sales and Profits in 1959, David J. Rachman and Robert J. Robichaud, Fall 1960, 174
Do Retailers Need Tax Relief on Non-Installment Receivables?, Donald F. Blankertz, Ralph F. Breyer, and Charles S. Goodman, Winter 1960–1961, 189
How Productive Are Dollars Invested in Retailing? A Study of Retail Trade in 1957, T. Dart Ellsworth and David J. Rachman, Fall 1958, 113
Measuring Retail Trade by the "Investor's Yardstick," A Study of Retail Trade in 1958, T. Dart Ellsworth and David J. Rachman, Fall 1959, 133
Research Report: Retail Sales in 1952, Evelyn Dawn Fraser, Summer 1953, 85
Retail Operating Ratios, a regular feature in the Fall issue from 1954 to 1960
Retail Trade in 1950, Research Department, New York University School of Retailing, Summer 1951, 72
Retail Trade in 1951, T. Dart Ellsworth and Evelyn Dawn Fraser, Summer 1952, 63
Retail Trade in 1953, Evelyn Dawn Fraser and Charlotte Kappelmann, Summer 1954, 53
Retail Trade in 1954, T. Dart Ellsworth and Harry Steinberger, Summer 1955, 93
Retail Trade in 1955, T. Dart Ellsworth and Katherine Mitchell, Summer 1956, 95

Retail Trade in 1956, T. Dart Ellsworth, Dolores Benjamin, and Herman Radolf, Fall 1957, 143

FASHION FORECASTING

Color by Command Decision, Frederic H. Rahr, Fall 1952, 131
Current Trends in Home Fashions, Mary L. Brandt, Fall 1950, 117
Customer Preference Clinics, Frederic H. Rahr and Elbridge B. Foskett (as told to Sallie Sewell), Summer 1955, 55
Is the Fashion Approach to Color Old-Fashioned?, Frederic H. Rahr, Fall 1953, 109

FOOD AND DRUGS

Applying Supermarket Techniques to Non-Food Retailing, Edgar A. Pessemier, Summer 1960, 108
Are Supermarkets Going "Soft"?, Gordon B. Cross, Summer 1954, 65
Division Organization in Food Chains, Edgar A. Pessemier, Winter 1957–1958, 170
Extent and Causes of Markdowns in Single-Line Stores, N. W. Comish, Winter 1955–1956, 190
Food-Chain Dilemma—Acquire or Expire? Frank J. Charvat, Winter 1958–1959, 216
(The) Franchise System in Co-operative Drugstores, William T. Kelley, Winter 1957–1958, 184
Grocers' Counters in the Kitchen, A Study of Door-to-Door Sales of Grocery Products, Francis A. Babione, Spring 1950, 13
How Vulnerable Are Supermarkets to Recession?, Dwight Gentry, Summer 1957, 57
Rise of Food Plans, Robert R. Henry, Spring 1953, 35
Use of Self-Selection in Drug Stores, William T. Kelley, Summer 1960, 114
What Department Store Management Should Know About Supermarkets, Victor Lebow, Spring 1953, 17
What Influences Customer Choice of a Food Store?, Newell W. Comish, Summer 1958, 90

GENERAL RETAILING PROBLEMS

(The) Advantages of Collective Merchandising for the Independent Retailer, Spring 1950, 37
Compact and Foreign-Car Price Comparisons, Allen F. Jung, Fall 1960, 150
(The) Crisis in Retailing, Victor Lebow, Spring 1957, 17
Extent and Causes of Markdowns in Single-Line Stores, N. W. Comish, Winter 1955–1956, 190
Farmers' Markets, Robert K. Otterbourg, Winter 1954–1955, 169
Going, Going, Gone, The Auctioneer's Place in Retail Selling, Rocco J. Battista, Summer 1950, 67
More About the Auction, the Auctioneer's Place in Retail Selling, Rocco J. Battista, Winter 1950, 162
(The) Need for Better Intrastore Co-operation, Robert K. Otterbourg, Winter 1956–1957, 185
(A) Neglected Market (the Older Consumer), Robert K. Otterbourg, Summer 1955, 67
Pets Mean Big Business, John D. Horn, Summer 1954, 49
(The) Pursuit of Profits, Gordon B. Cross, Fall 1956, 121
(The) Responsibilities of Bigness, Gordon B. Cross, Fall 1955, 115
Retail Trouble Spots, DeFord C. Mills, Summer 1956, 49
(The) Retailer's Use of Census Tracts, Sidney Cohen, Spring 1956, 40
Small-Town Monopoly, William T. Kelley, Summer 1955, 63
Store Press Publicists and Their Work on the Women's Pages, Steven J. Shaw, Winter 1956–1957, 166
Those Half-Mad Hatters, Nancy Thomas, Fall 1951, 118
Unions and Retailing, Richard E. Westervelt, Summer 1956, 66
Use of Word Luxury in Jewelry Industry, Arnold I. Leeds, Spring 1952, 28
Who is Thinking for Retailing?, Gordon B. Cross, Spring 1955, 31
Why Do College Graduates Leave Retailing?, T. Dart Ellsworth and Jeanne S. Hulquist, Spring 1955, 157

MANAGEMENT

Are Your Store Directories Showing?, Research Division, New York University School of Retailing, Spring 1951, 35
Do Stores Favor Manufacturer-Paid Spiffs?, T. Dart Ellsworth, Fall 1954, 109
Impact of New Products Upon Retail-Store Management, Frank W. Barsalou, Summer 1956, 80

Is Your Employee Publication an "Employee Publication," Research Division, New York University School of Retailing, Spring 1951, 1
Is Your Organization Up-to-Date?, Hans E. Krusa, Summer 1954, 75
Management Perspective of Retailing, Herbert H. Schwamb, Summer 1951, 68
Multi-Planning, Jack Wolff, Fall 1953, 121
(The) Need for Better Intrastore Cooperation, Robert K. Otterbourg, Winter 1956–1957, 185
Retail Engineer, Gordon B. Cross, Summer 1951, 79
Retail Trouble Spots, DeFord C. Mills, Summer 1956, 49
Rise of Food Plans, Robert R. Henry, Spring 1953, 35
(The) Skills of Creative Leadership, Lewis B. Sappington and C. G. Browne, Spring 1957, 27
Test Your Executive Pulling Power, R. Keith Malcolm, Winter 1953–1954, 159
Unions and Retailing, Richard E. Westervelt, Summer 1956, 66
We Need an Organization Stretcher, Lawrence C. Lockley, Summer 1950, 65
What Happened to Loeser's Customers?, T. Dart Ellsworth, Spring 1954, 1
What Makes the J. C. Penney Company Tick?", N. W. Comish and Galen Stutsman, Summer 1956, 90
What the A & P Case Is All About, Godfrey M. Lebhar, Spring 1950, 19
Who Is Thinking for Retailing?, Gordon B. Cross, Spring 1955, 31

MANUFACTURER RELATIONS

Advance Price Notification as an Anti-Inflationary Measure, Reuben C. Slesinger, Spring 1960, 42
How Manufacturer Pricing Methods Are Adapted to Retailer Use, David J. Rachman, Spring 1960, 7
How Price Changes Should Be Handled by the Manufacturer, William J. Pilat, Winter 1958–1959, 202
How Self-Selection Affects Vendor Relations, Stanley C. Hollander, Summer 1960, 58
Minimizing Transportation Costs with Shipper Co-operatives, Edward W. Smykay and Irene Shiele, Summer 1959, 100
More Light and Less Heat in Co-operative Advertising, Joseph Lorin, Fall 1959, 147
(The) One-Price System—Fact or Fiction?, Stanley C. Hollander, Fall 1955, 127
Recent Developments in Procedures and Techniques of Modern Wholesalers, Robert D. Henderson, Summer 1951, 94
Resale Price Maintenance, Edward McFadyen, Spring 1957, 14
What Manufacturers Offer Retailers in Fixtures and Layout, T. Dart Ellsworth and Harry Steinberger, Summer 1955, 49

MERCHANDISE INFORMATION

Blending Natural and Synthetic Fibers in Men's Furnishings, Isabel B. Wingate and Ralph S. Burkholder, Fall 1957, 119
Calling All Fur Retailers, Karen R. Gillespie, Winter 1951, 157
Case for Natural Fibers in Men's Furnishings, Isabel B. Wingate and Ralph S. Burkholder, 1954, 29
Customers Versus Colleague Ties Among Retailer Furriers, Louis Kriesberg, Winter 1953–1954, 173
Fur Law Changes Fur Ads, Karen R. Gillespie, Winter 1952, 145
How to Get Your Money's Worth When Buying Sheets, Isabel B. Wingate, Spring 1953, 21
Information Sources for the Retailer, Paul Wasserman, Fall 1951, 147
Inside Information for Retailers, Evelyn Dawn Fraser, Spring 1954, 21
(A) List of Resources on Leather, Karen R. Gillespie, Winter 1950, 180
List of Resources on Shoes, Research Division, New York University School of Retailing, Summer 1951, 100
(The) Middle Market for Broadloom Carpeting, Clarence Judd, Summer 1959, 105
Sources of Information for Silverware, Karen R. Gillespie, Fall 1950, 28
Textile Testing with Limited Equipment, Isabel B. Wingate, Summer 1950, 80
Up-to-Date Look at Consumer Rating Agencies, Eugene R. Beem, Spring 1952, 15

MERCHANDISE MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTING

(A) Critical Analysis of Merchandise Management Accounting, Gordon B. Cross, Spring 1958, 21
(The) Effect of M.M.A. on Expense-Making Decisions, Herman Radolf, Spring 1958, 43

(The) Historical Background of Merchandise Management Accounting, Elmer O. Schaller, Spring 1958, 16
Merchandise Management Accounting as a Tool for Merchandising, Bernard W. Smith, Spring 1958, 38
M.M.A. Should Supplement Expense Center Accounting, Kenneth P. Mages, Spring 1958, 30
Objectives and Basic Principles of M.M.A., Robert I. Jones, Spring 1958, 2

MERCHANDISING

(The) Advantages of Collective Merchandising for the Independent Retailer, Moni Avidon and Samuel H. Morrison, Spring 1950, 37
Art by the Yard, Bee Bradshaw, Summer 1953, 83
Ask Me about the "Seven," George C. Engel, Jr., Summer 1952, 61
Case Study in Creative Merchandising, David E. Faville, Winter 1952, 173
First-Floor Departments, Karl Gerstenberg, Summer 1950, 84
How Sound Is Your Buying?, Rudolph J. Ginzl, Jr., Winter 1952, 167
Merchandise Planning Organization in Department-Store Chains, Richard M. Hill, Summer 1959, 73
Self-Selection Buying in Department and Specialty Stores, William J. Regan, Summer 1960, 90
Self-Selection Challenges the Merchandising Division, Bernard W. Smith and Herman Radolf, Summer 1960, 81

MISCELLANEOUS

Compact and Foreign-Car Price Comparisons, Allen F. Jung, Fall 1960, 150
Farmers Markets, Robert K. Otterbourg, Winter 1954–1955, 169
Going, Going, Gone, The Auctioneer's Place in Retail Selling, Rocco J. Battista, Summer 1950, 67
More About the Auction, the Auctioneer's Place in Retail Selling, Rocco J. Battista, Winter 1950, 162
Pets Mean Big Business, John D. Horn, Summer 1954, 49
Those Half-Mad Hatters, Nancy Thomas, Fall 1951, 118
Use of Word Luxury in Jewelry Industry, Arnold I. Leeds, Spring 1952, 28

PEOPLE AND ORGANIZATIONS

Dr. Henry Pasdermadjian, Derek Knee, Summer 1955, 73
Eighty Years Young, Still Pioneering, Ralph K. Guinzburg, Fall 1950, 122
How the New York University School of Retailing Was Founded and Developed, Samuel W. Reyburn, Fall 1950, 93
The Honor Roll in Retailing, Biographical Sketches of Leading Retailers, Charles M. Edwards, Jr., Fall, Winter, and Spring issues each year from 1955 through 1960.
What Happened to Loeser's Customers?, T. Dart Ellsworth, Spring 1954, 1
What Makes the J. C. Penney Company Tick?, N. W. Comish and Galen Stutsman, Summer 1956, 90
What the A & P Case Is All About, Godfrey M. Lebhar, Spring 1950, 19

PERSONNEL

Characteristics of Retail Trade Employment, Jules Backman, Summer 1957, 79
Control—Key to Profit (Handling Theft Problems Among Employees), S. D. Astor, Fall 1960, 138
Does Professional Education in Retailing Pay Off?, Charles M. Edwards, Jr., Winter 1960–1961, 169
How to Obtain and Retain Superior Personnel, Charles M. Edwards, Jr., Summer 1953, 53
How Will Evening Openings Affect Retail Workers?, T. Dart Ellsworth, Spring 1953, 1
Inside Information for Retailers, A Study of Employee Attitudes, Evelyn Dawn Fraser, Spring 1954, 21
Job Evaluation in Department Stores, William R. Spriegel and Elizabeth Lanham, Summer 1951, 79
Personnel Policies in Large Department Stores, Harry A. Lipson, Summer 1956, 68
Personnel Selection—A Viewpoint and a Method, Hilton N. Wasserman, Fall 1952, 123
Problems Facing New Employees in Retailing, Samuel Feinberg, Winter 1959–1960, 174
Retail Labor Costs, Jules Backman, Spring 1957, 5
Salespeople: An Undeveloped Sales Potential, T. Dart Ellsworth and Evelyn Dawn Fraser, Winter 1953–1954, 149

(The) Skills of Creative Leadership, Lewis B. Sappington and C. G. Browne, Spring 1957, 27

PRICING

Advance Price Notification as an Anti-Inflationary Measure, Reuben E. Slesinger, Spring 1960, 42
(A) Common-Sense Approach to Increased Retail Profits, George C. Engel, Spring 1960, 27
Extent and Causes of Markdowns in Single-Line Stores, N. W. Comish, Winter 1955–1956, 190
How Manufacturer Pricing Methods Are Adapted to Retailer Use, David J. Rachman, Spring 1960, 7
How Price Changes Should Be Handled by the Manufacturer, William J. Pilat, Winter 1958–1959, 202
(The) One-Price System—Fact or Fiction?, Stanley C. Hollander, Fall 1955, 127
Price Competition in 1955, Victor Lebow, Spring 1955, 5
Resale Price Maintenance, Edward McFadyen, Spring 1957, 14
(A) Scientific Approach to Retail Pricing, Gordon B. Cross, Fall 1959, 118
What Have We Learned about Price Control?, Lawrence C. Lockley, Spring 1951, 19
What To Do About the "Cost Squeeze," Reavis Cox, Winter 1959, 169

PUBLIC RELATIONS

(The) American Retailer—Subservient to the Public?, Stanley C. Hollander, Fall 1958, 143
Customers Are Still King, Herman Radolf, Fall 1960, 143
(The) Decay of Ethics, Vrest Orton, Spring 1957, 61
(The) Retailer—Leader of Tomorrow's Community, L. T. White and Med Serif, Fall 1959, 153
Retailers Favor Written Policies, T. Dart Ellsworth, Spring 1952, 1
Retailers Get Rid of Banking, Joseph M. Russakoff, Fall 1952, 107
Sharpening Your Store Image, Robert H. Myers, Fall 1960, 129

RESEARCH METHODS

Doing Your Own Research, T. Dart Ellsworth, Summer 1958, 63
Milestones of Research in Retailing, T. Dart Ellsworth, Summer 1956, 56
Mr. Retailer, What Do You Know About Your Customers?, Donald F. Blankertz, Spring 1950, 28
Research in Business, Lawrence C. Lockley, Winter 1950, 177

RETAILING TRENDS

Historic Forces on the March, Fred Hooson, Winter 1950, 174
New Era in Retailing, J. J. Black, Winter 1951, 189
New Trends in Automation, Discount Houses, Branch Stores, Shopping Centers, Self-Selection, Pricing, Merchandise Management Accounting, Trading Stamps, and Training (see these specific subject headings)
(The) Profit Potential in Customer Leisure and Mobility, John M. Rathmel, Winter 1959–1960, 178
(The) Retailing Revolution: Why and Whither?, Alfred R. Oxenfeldt, Fall 1960, 157

RETAILING IN OTHER COUNTRIES

Application of Work Study to Department Stores in Great Britain, Edward McFadyen, Summer 1958, 68
British Retail Institutions, Minnie B. Tracey, Summer 1957, 93
European Merchants Look at Automation, Derek Knee, Spring 1959, 31
Merchandise Distribution in Tropical Africa, Mildred Rendl Marcus, Winter 1959, 197
Retail Management in Israel, Samuel I. Spector, Summer 1959, 85
Retail Progress in Sweden, Benjamin H. Namm, Winter 1951, 181
Will British Food Retailing Follow the American Pattern?, W. G. McClelland, Summer 1958, 101

SELF-SELECTION

Another Look at Self-Selection, Editorial Board of New York University School of Retailing, Summer 1960, 57
Applying Supermarket Techniques to Non-Food Retailing, Edgar A. Pessemier, Summer 1960, 108
Centralized Cashiering in Self-Selection Aids Control, Ralph H. Ely, Jr., Summer 1960, 67

Fixtures for Self-Selection in Soft Goods, Daniel Schwartzman, Summer 1960, 88
How Discount-House Selling Has Influenced Department Stores, Robert E. Dodge, Summer 1960, 97
How Self-Selection Affects Vendor Relations, Stanley C. Hollander, Summer 1960, 58
Self-Selection Buying in Department and Specialty Stores, Summer 1960, 90
Self-Selection Challenges the Merchandising Division, Bernard W. Smith and Herman Radolf, Summer 1960, 81
Self-Selection Is More Than a Fixture, Gordon H. Cross, Winter 1953–1954, 157
Train Salesmen to Eliminate Need for Self-Selection, Ronald D. Michman, Summer 1960, 102
Use of Self-Selection in Drug Stores, William T. Kelley, Summer 1960, 114

SELLING

Analytic Guide for Reduction of Selling Expenses, Nathan Katz, Spring 1960, 36
(The) Basic Way to Improve Department Store Selling, Robert H. Myers, Winter 1958–1959, 195
Design for Selling, T. Dart Ellsworth, Spring 1951, 22
Do Christmas Catalogues Stimulate Purchasing?, Robert J. Robichaud and Sallie Sewell, Spring 1960, 1
Dollars Thrown Out the Window, A Study of Misdirected Selling Effort, Research Department, New York University School of Retailing, Spring 1950, 1
Forecasting Retail Sales, T. J. Sielaff, Summer 1955, 91
How Expert Salespeople Sell, Willard M. Thompson, Fall 1955, 119
Impact of New Products upon Retail-Store Management, Robert W. Barsalou, Summer 1956, 80
Improving Attitudes and Performance of Salespeople, Edward McFadyen, Summer 1960, 73
Loss-Leader Selling—The Enemy of Successful Retailing, Mrs. R. M. Kiefer, Winter 1950, 158
Retail Sales in 1953, Evelyn Dawn Fraser, Summer 1953, 85
Retail Sales Management—in a Semiwar Economy, Howard M. Cowee, Spring 1951, 8
Retail Selling Can and Should Be Improved, Spring 1957, 39
Salesmanship—What's That?, James McEwen, Winter 1950, 153
Salespeople: An Undeveloped Sales Potential, T. Dart Ellsworth and Evelyn Dawn Fraser, Winter 1953–1954, 140
Selling Methods and Merchandise Knowledge of Men's Wear and Shoe Salespeople, N. W. Comish, Spring 1951, 40
Selling the Older Consumer, Robert E. Dodge, Summer 1958, 73
To Be or Not to Be, Richard E. Westervelt, Spring 1952, 37
Train Salesmen to Eliminate Need for Self-Selection, Ronald D. Michman, Summer 1960, 102
You Sell Freedom When You Sell Major Appliances, George T. Mortland, Spring 1953, 37

SMALL RETAILERS

(The) Advantages of Collective Merchandising for the Independent Retailer, Spring 1950, 37
Better Planning Necessary for Small Retailers of Male Apparel, John Connolly, Spring 1955, 27
Coming Events Cast Their Shadow for the Small Retailer, George Edward Beem, Winter 1950, 169
Decision-Making in Smaller Stores, Harry A. Lipson, Spring 1952, 23
Doing Your Own Research, T. Dart Ellsworth, Summer 1958, 63
Help for the Small Businessman, Jane J. Vogeley, Summer 1952, 85
Merchandise Management Profitable to the Small Retailer, Lester R. Nathan, Summer 1951, 86
Small Independent Retailers Need a Training Program in Retail Accounting, J. K. Stoner, Summer 1954, 57
Small Stores in Small Communities, Gerald S. Leinward, Spring 1952, 34
Small-Town Merchants Capitalize on Marketing Research, H. Webster Johnson, Spring 1951, 12

SHOPPING CENTERS

Changing Trends in Regional Shopping Centers, T. Dart Ellsworth, Dolores Benjamin, and Herman Radolf, Winter 1958–1959, 177
Impact of Long Island Centers on Shopping Habits, T. Dart Ellsworth, Dolores Benjamin, and Herman Radolf, Fall 1957, 109

Impact of Shopping Centers Locally and Downtown, Gordon H. Stedman, Spring 1956, 25
Impact of Shopping Centers on Trade in Downtown Cincinnati, Charles H. Hindersman, Winter 1959–1960, 185
Leasing Space in a Planned Shopping Center, Robert L. Smith, Summer 1957, 63
(The) Retailer's Use of Census Tracts, Sidney Cohen, Spring 1956, 40
(The) Rise of Shopping Centers, Gordon H. Stedman, Spring 1955, 11
Sales Promotion in Shopping Centers, Robert K. Otterbourg, Winter 1955–1956, 183
Shopping Centers and Local Government—Collision or Co-operation?, Gordon H. Stedman, Summer 1955, 77

TRADING STAMPS

Customer Response to Trading Stamps, T. Dart Ellsworth, Dolores Benjamin, and Herman Radolf, Winter 1957–1958, 165
Effects of Trading Stamps on Retail Competition, Ralph Louis Andreano, Summer 1959, 87
Response to Trading Stamp Plans, Arthur Kroeger, Winter 1953–1954, 171

TRAINING

Adaptation of Role-Playing Techniques to Sales Training, Joseph G. Phelan, Winter 1954–1955, 149
(The) Branch-Store Supervisor—A New Training Field, T. Dart Ellsworth and Jeanne S. Hulquist, Winter 1956–1957, 157
Building Effective Sales Training Programs in Retail Stores, Daniel Moreines, Winter 1953–1954, 177
Chain Store Human Relations, S. I. Spector, Winter 1954–1955, 161
Does Professional Education in Retailing Pay Off?, Charles M. Edwards, Jr., Winter 1960–1961, 169
Does Training Pay Dividends?, T. Dart Ellsworth, Fall 1950, 107
Executive Trainees Earn While They Learn, Evelyn Dawn Fraser, Summer 1953, 71
How to Make Store Training Work, Paul E. Smith, Spring 1953, 31
Is Store Training a Horse and Buggy Operation, Anne Saum, Fall 1953, 115
Let's Spread the Word About Retail Training, Elaine C. Scott, Summer 1952, 81
(The) New Approach to Retail Training, Edward F. Perreault, Summer 1950, 75
Retail Training and Certification—The British Experiment and American Analogies, Stanley C. Hollander, Summer 1957, 69
Retail Training Program, M. Adele Mitzel, Spring 1952, 31
Training Policies at Robert Hall, Harold Rosner, Fall 1955, 125

JOURNAL OF RETAILING
INDEX OF AUTHORS

1950–1960

Abelow, S. I., M. E. Blatt Company Takes to the Air, Winter 1952, 155
Andreano, Louis, Effects of Trading Stamps on Retail Competition, Summer 1959, 87
Astor, S. D., Control—Key to Profit, Fall 1960, 138
Avidon, Mont and Samuel H. Morrison, The Advantages of Collective Merchandising for the Independent Retailer, Spring 1950, 37
Axtell, Robert G., Planning Your Branch Store, Fall 1954, 115

Babione, Francis A., Grocers' Counters in the Kitchen, A Study of the Door to Door Sales of Grocery Products, Spring 1950, 113
Bara, Philip M. (see Ellsworth, T. Dart)
Barr, Meyer B., Romance in Truth, The Story of Diamonds and Diamontology, Winter 1949, 153
Backman, Jules, Characteristics of Retail Trade Employment, Summer 1957, 79
———, Economic Characteristics of Retail Trade (part of a series), Fall 1956, 113
———, The Local Nature of Chain-Store Operations (part of a series), Winter 1956–1957, 175
———, Retail Labor Costs, Spring 1957, 79
Baker, James W., What Price Services?, Summer 1956, 86

Baker, Richard M., Jr., Improving Sales Training in the Classroom, Spring 1955, 33
Barsalou, Frank W., Impact of New Products Upon Retail-Store Management, Summer 1956, 80
Battista, Rocco J., Going, Going, Gone, The Auctioneer's Place in Retail Selling, Summer 1950, 67
———, More About the Auction, Winter 1950, 162
Beem, Eugene R., Up-to-Date Look at Consumer Rating Agencies, Spring 1952, 15
Black, J. J., New Era in Retailing, Winter 1951, 189
Blakeley, Donald and William R. Welke, Do Retailers Need Tax Relief on Non-Installment Receivables?, Winter 1960–1961, 189
Blankertz, Donald F., Mr. Retailer, What Do You Know About Your Customers?, Spring 1950, 28
———, Ralph F. Breyer, and Charles S. Goodman, Campus Shopping Patterns, Summer 1954, 71
Bradshaw, Bee, Art by the Yard, Summer 1953, 83
Brandt, Mary L., Current Trends in Home Fashions, Fall 1950, 117
Breen, George Edward, Coming Events Cast Their Shadow for the Small Retailer, Winter 1950, 169
Burkholder, Ralph S. (see Wingate, Isabel B.)
Burnett, Edgar L. (see Le Sueur, James Kay)

Cohen, Sidney, The Retailer's Use of Census Tracts, Spring 1956, 40
Comish, N. W., Extent and Causes of Markdowns in Single-Line Stores, Winter 1955–1956, 190
———, Selling Methods and Merchandise Knowledge of Men's Wear and Shoe Salespeople, Spring 1951, 40
——— and Galen Stutsman, What Makes the J. C. Penney Company Tick?, Summer 1956, 90
Connolly, John, Better Planning Necessary for Small Retailers of Male Apparel, Spring 1955, 27
Copes, Raymond F., The Moral Justification for "Lifo," Summer 1950, 72
Cowee, Howard M., Retail Sales Management—In a Semiwar Economy, Spring 1951, 8
Cox, Reavis, What to Do about the "Cost Squeeze," Winter 1959–1960, 169
Cross, Gordon B., Are Supermarkets Going "Soft?", Summer 1954, 65
———, A Critical Analysis of Merchandise Management Accounting, Spring 1958, 21
———, Customer's Part in Service, Spring 1953, 27
———, Future of Automation in Retailing, Spring 1959, 54
———, The Pursuit of Profits, Fall 1956, 121
———, The Responsibilities of Bigness, Fall 1955, 115
———, The Retail Engineer, Summer 1953, 79
———, A Scientific Approach to Retail Pricing, Fall 1959, 118
———, Self-Selection is More Than a Fixture, Winter 1953, 157
———, Who Is Thinking for Retailing?, Spring 1955, 31

Dodge, Robert E., How Discount-House Selling Has Influenced Department Stores, Summer 1960, 97
Domer, Naomi R., We Believe in Customer Participation, Winter 1950, 148
Donnahoe, Alan S., Research Study of Consumer Loyalty, Spring 1950, 14

Edwards, Charles M., Does Professional Education in Retailing Pay Off?, Winter 1960–1961, 169
———, How to Obtain and Retain Superior Personnel, Summer 1953, 53
———, The Honor Roll in Retailing, a series of biographical sketches, including:

William Applebaum, Fall 1955, 145
Wheelock H. Bingham, Winter 1955–1956, 195
Fred H. Bresee, Spring 1960, 47
James D. Casey, Spring 1955, 39
Albert M. Greenfield, Winter 1954, 181
Paul H. Hammacher, Winter 1960–1961, 217
A. W. Hughes, Fall 1955, 147
Hugh R. Jackson, Fall 1960, 186
Stanley Marcus, Winter 1956–1957, 190
Charles F. Phillips, Spring 1958, 48
William J. Pilat, Winter 1955–1956, 193
Louis Rothschild, Fall 1959, 159
George A. Scott, Spring 1959, 58
Dorothy Shaver, Fall 1957, 151
Myron S. Silbert, Fall 1956, 142
Stanley Simon, Spring 1957, 47
Edward Staley, Fall 1958, 165
Louis Stein, Winter 1957–1958, 198
David L. Yunich, Winter 1959–1960, 202

Ellsworth, T. Dart, Are Branch Stores Over-expanding?, Winter 1952, 159
———, Are Outpost Customers Different?, Summer 1953, 57
———, Are Retail Stores Inviting Regulation?, Fall 1952, 111
———, Are Walkouts Too High Among Lower Fifth Avenue Shoppers, Fall 1953, 101
———, Design for Selling, Spring 1951, 22
———, Do Stores Favor Manufacturer-Paid Spiffs, Fall 1954, 109
———, Does Training Pay Dividends?, Fall 1950, 107
———, Doing Your Own Research, Summer 1958, 63
———, How Will Evening Openings Affect Retail Workers, Spring 1953, 1
———, Milestones of Research in Retailing, Summer 1956, 56
———, What Happened to Loeser's Customers?, Spring 1954, 1
———, Dolores Benjamin, and Herman Radolf, Changing Trends in Regional Shopping Centers, Winter 1958–1959, 177
———, ———, ———, Customer Response to Trading Stamps, Winter 1957–1958, 165
———, ———, ———, Impact of Long Island Centers on Shopping Habits, Fall 1957, 109
——— and Evelyn Dawn Fraser, Billionaires Now! What Next?, Winter 1951, 169
———, ———, Retail Trade in 1951, Summer 1952, 63
———, ———, Salespeople: An Undeveloped Sales Potential, Winter 1953–1954, 149
——— and Jeanne S. Hulquist, Branch Store Supervisor, A New Training Field, Winter 1956–1957, 157
———, Impact of Ohrbach's on 34th Street Shopping Traffic, Fall 1955, 105
———, Manhattan Male Shoppers Evaluate Store Service, Winter 1954–1955, 141
———, Who Shops on 34th Street and Lower Fifth Avenue?, Fall 1954, 93
———, Why Customers Return Furniture, Spring 1955, 1
———, Why Do College Graduates Leave Retailing?, Winter 1955–1956, 157
———, Gilda Lehr and Philip M. Bara, Do You Know or Are You Guessing?, Fall 1952, 97
——— and Katherine S. Mitchell, Can Stores Curtail Service Without Losing Customers, Winter 1956–1957, 174
———, Co-ordination of Advertising with Display and Personnel, Fall 1956, 105
———, Retail Trade in 1955, Summer 1956, 95
———, Revitalizing of New York, Spring 1957, 1
——— and David J. Rachman, How Productive Are Dollars Invested in Retailing?, Fall 1958, 153
——— and Harry Steinberger, Is Unit Control Essential to Women's Apparel Stores?, Winter 1954–1955, 153
———, What Manufacturers Offer Retailers in Fixtures and Layout, Summer 1955, 49
Ely, Ralph H., Jr., Centralized Cashiering in Self-Selection Aids Control, Summer 1960, 67
———, Promise of Automation in Accounting and Control, Spring 1959, 27
Engel, George C., Ask Me About the "Seven," Summer 1952, 61
———, A Common-Sense Approach to Increased Retail Profits, Spring 1960, 27
Ernst, John W. (see Hills, Justin E.)

Faville, David E., Case Study in Creative Merchandising, Winter 1952, 173
Feinberg, Samuel, Problems Facing New Employees in Retailing, Winter 1959–1960, 174
Fisk, George, The Replanning of Center-City Shopping Districts, Summer 1959, 80
Fraser, Evelyn Dawn, Executive Trainees Earn While They Learn, Summer 1953, 71
———, Inside Information for Retailers, Spring 1954, 21
———, Retail Sales in 1952, Summer 1953, 85
———, (see also Ellsworth, T. Dart)
——— and Charlotte Kappelmann, Retail Trade in 1953, Summer 1954, 53

Gentry, Dwight, Case History of a Consumer Co-operative, Summer 1956, 61
Gerstenberg, Karl, First-Floor Departments, Summer 1950, 84
Gillespie, Karen R., Calling All Fur Retailers! Winter 1951, 157
———, How Fashionable Is Glove Advertising During the Easter Season?, Summer 1953, 67
———, Retailing Executives Rate College Courses, Fall 1960, 163
———, Sources of Information for Silverware, Fall 1950, 128
———, Yardstick for Jewelry Advertising, Fall 1954, 103

Ginzl, Rudolph J., Jr., How Sound Is Your Buying?, Winter 1952, 167
Green, William T. (see Le Sueur, James Kay)
Gross, Claire M., Services Offered by Discount Houses in Metropolitan New York, Spring 1955, 1
Guinzburg, Ralph K., Eighty Years Young, Still Pioneering, Fall 1950, 122

Hannaford, Gladys Babson, Make Salesmen of Your Customers, Spring 1950, 9
Henderson, Robert D., Recent Developments in Procedures and Techniques of Modern Wholesalers, Summer 1951, 94
Henry, Robert R., The Rise of Food Plans, Spring 1953, 35
Higginbottom, Stuart J., Undergraduate Four-Year Co-operative Retailing College Course, Fall 1951, 143
Hill, Richard M., Merchandise Planning Organization in Department-Store Chains, Summer 1959, 73
Hills, Justin E. and John W. Ernest, Averaging Markup by Allegation, Winter 1953–1954, 167
Hindersman, Charles H., Impact of Shopping Centers on Trade in Downtown Cincinnati, Winter 1959–1960, 185
Hollander, Stanley C., How Self-Selection Affects Vendor Relations, Summer 1960, 58
———, The "One-Price" System—Fact or Fiction?, Fall 1955, 127
Hooson, Fred, Historic Forces on the March, Winter 1950, 174
Horn, John D., Pets Mean Big Business, Summer 1954, 49
Hulquist, Jeanne S. (see Ellsworth, T. Dart)

Jackson, Norman A., How to Work with Other People's Money, Fall 1956, 129
James, Frank H. (see Le Sueur, James Kay)
Johnson, H. Webster, Small-Town Merchants Capitalize on Marketing Research, Spring 1951, 12
Johnson, John W., Collection Methods in Retailing, Winter 1960–1961, 196
Jones, Robert I., Objectives and Basic Principles of Merchandise Management Accounting, Spring 1958, 2
——— and John R. Spellman, The Electronic Potential in Retailing, Spring 1959, 2
Judd, Clarence, The Middle Market for Broadloom Carpeting, Summer 1959, 105
Jung, Allen F., Compact and Foreign-Car Price Comparisons, Fall 1960, 150

Kappelman, Charlotte (see Fraser, Evelyn Dawn)
Katz, Nathan, Analytic Guide for Reduction of Selling Expenses, Spring 1960, 36
Kaufmann, Ted, Daytime—The Retailer's Television Time, Summer 1956, 76
Kelley, William T., Small-Town Monopoly, Summer 1955, 63
———, Use of Self-Selection in Drug Stores, Summer 1960, 114
Kibarian, Barkev, Why Department Stores Can Meet Discount House Competition, Winter 1960–1961, 201
Kiefer, Mrs. R. M., Loss-Leader Selling—The Enemy of Successful Retailing, Winter 1950, 158
Klepp, Amelia L., Retailing Club, Winter 1952, 175
Knee, Derek, Dr. Henry Pasdermadjian, Summer 1955, 73
———, European Merchants Look at Automation, Spring 1959, 31
Kriesberg, Louis, Customer Versus Colleague Ties Among Retail Furriers, Winter 1953–1954, 173
Kroeger, Arthur, The Response to Trading Stamp Plans, Winter 1953–1954, 171
Krusa, Hans E., Is Your Organization Up-to-Date?, Summer 1954, 75

Lanham, Elizabeth (see Spriegel, William R.)
Landis, Jack B. and Thomas E. Coffin, Television Advertising As Viewed by Retailers, Spring 1956, 17
Lebhar, Godfrey M., What the A & P Case Is All About, Spring 1950, 19
Lebow, Victor, Forced Consumption—The Prescription for 1956, Winter 1955–1956, 166
———, Impact of Competition on Retailing in 1954, Spring 1954, 15
———, Price Competition in 1955, Spring 1955, 5
———, What Department Store Management Should Know About Supermarkets, Spring 1953, 17
Lebowitz, Carl F., Window Shopping for Facts at Christmastime, 1953, Spring 1954, 33
Leeds, Arnold I., Use of Word Luxury in Jewelry Industry, Spring 1952, 28
Lehr, Gilda (see Ellsworth, T. Dart)
Leinwand, Gerald S., Small Stores in Small Communities, Spring 1952, 34
Le Sueur, James Kay, Wayne C. Pomeroy, William T. Green, Frank H. James, and Edgar L. Burnett, List of Resources on Shoes, Summer 1951, 100

Lipson, Harry A., Decision Making in Smaller Stores, Spring 1952, 23
———, Personnel Policies in Large Department Stores, Summer 1956, 68
Lockley, Lawrence C., Research in Business, Winter 1950, 177
———, We Need an Organization Stretcher, Summer 1950, 65
———, What Have We Learned About Price Control?, Spring 1952, 19
———, Will Big Stores Crush Small Stores, Spring 1950, 25
Lorin, Joseph, More Light and Less Heat in Co-operative Advertising, Fall 1959, 147

Mages, Kenneth P., M.M.A. Should Supplement Expense Center Accounting, Spring 1958, 30
Malcolm, R. Keith, Test Your Executive Pulling Power, Winter 1953–1954, 159
Marcus, Mildred Rendl, Merchandise Distribution in Tropical Africa, Winter 1959–1960, 197
Mason, Jack and Edward L. Slater, Retailers, It's Your Move, Summer 1952, 49
Masterson, William H., Current Equipment for Textile Testing, Spring 1959, 51
McEwan, James, Salesmanship—What's That?, Winter 1950, 153
McFadyen, Edward, Improving Attitudes and Performance of Salespeople, Summer 1960, 73
McMath, C. B., Hecht Company Branches Out, Spring 1952, 9
Michman, Ronald D., Train Salesmen to Eliminate Need for Self-Selection, Summer 1960, 102
Mills, DeFord, C., Organizing Chain Variety Stores to Sell More Goods, Summer 1959, 65
———, Retail Trouble Spots, Summer 1956, 49
Mitzel, M. Adele, Retail Training Program, Spring 1952, 31
Moore, Karl F., Against Sluggers: Bigger and Better Weapons, Summer 1950, 56
Moreines, Daniel, Building Effective Sales Training Programs in Retail Stores, Winter 1953–1954, 177
Morrison, Samuel H. and Moni Avidon, The Advantages of Collective Merchandising for the Independent Retailer, Spring 1950, 37
Mortland, George T., You Sell Freedom When You Sell Major Appliances, Spring 1953, 37
Myers, Robert H., Automation on the Selling Floor, Spring 1959, 11
———, Sharpening Your Store Image, Fall 1960, 129

Namm, Benjamin H., Retail Progress in Sweden, Winter 1951, 181
Nathan, Lester R., Merchandise Management Profitable to the Small Retailer, Summer 1951, 86
New York University School of Retailing, Research Division, Dollars Thrown Out the Window, A Study of Misdirected Selling Effort, Spring 1950, 1
———, What Is Your Store Doing About Returns?, A Study of Returns in a Group of Metropolitan New York Stores, Fall 1950, 101
———, Retailers Increase Sales Productivity of Invested Dollars, Winter 1950, 141
1952 Day Graduate Class, New York University School of Retailing, Do You Tie-in Display with Advertising?, Winter 1951, 185

O'Brien, George G., Henry F. Sherwood, and Richard E. Trueman, Sans—A Simplified Account-Numbering System, Spring 1960, 19
Otterbourg, Robert K., The Farmers Market, Winter 1954–1955, 169
———, Need for Better Intrastore Cooperation, Winter 1956–1957, 185
———, A Neglected Market, Summer 1955, 67
———, Sales Promotion in Shopping Centers, Winter 1955–1956, 183
Oxenfeldt, Alfred R., The Retailing Revolution: Why and Whither?, Fall 1960, 157

Perreault, Edward F., The New Approach to Retail Training, Summer 1950, 75
Pessemier, Edgar A., Applying Supermarket Techniques to Non-Food Retailing, Summer 1960, 108
Phelan, Joseph G., Adaptation of Role-Playing Techniques in Sales Training, Winter 1954–1955, 149
Pomeroy, Wayne C. (see Le Sueur, James Kay)

Rachman, David J., How Manufacturer Pricing Methods Are Adapted to Retailer Use, Spring 1960, 7
——— and Robert J. Robichaud, Comparative Analysis of Sales and Profits in 1959, Fall 1960, 174

Rachman, David J. (see Ellsworth, T. Dart)
Radolf, Herman, Customers Are Still King, Fall 1960, 143
———, The Effect of Merchandise Management Accounting on Expense-Making Decisions, Spring 1958, 43
Rahr, Frederic H., Color by Command Decision, Fall 1952, 131
———, Is the Fashion Approach to Color Old-Fashioned?, Fall 1953, 109
——— and Elbridge B. Foskett, (as told to Sallie Sewell), Customer Preference Clinics, Summer 1955, 55
Rathmell, J. M., Lower Defense Production Schedules and Marketing, Winter 1952, 169
Regan, William J., Self-Selection in Buying in Department and Specialty Stores, Summer 1960, 90
Research Division, New York University School of Retailing, Are Your Store Directories Showing?, Spring 1951, 35
———, Ask Your Customers!, Fall 1951, 123
———, Introducing Tippie, V.I.C. (research on the shopping habits of the business girl), Fall 1951, 109
———, Is Professional Training in Retailing Worthwhile?, Summer 1951, 53
———, Is Your Employee Publication an "Employee Publication?", Spring 1951, 1
———, Retail Trade in 1950, Summer 1951, 72
Resnick, David, The Functions of Sales Promotion Manager in a Resident Buying Office, Summer 1954, 67
Reyburn, Samuel W., How the New York University School of Retailing Was Founded and Developed, Fall 1950, 93
Robichaud, Robert J. and Sallie Sewell, Do Christmas Catalogues Stimulate Purchasing?, A Research Study, Spring 1960, 1
Robichaud, Robert J. (see Rachman, David J.)
Rosner, Harold, Training Policies at Robert Hall, Fall 1955, 125
Russakoff, Joseph M., Retailers Get Rid of Banking, Fall 1952, 107

Saum, Anne, Is Store Training a Horse and Buggy Operation?, Fall 1953, 115
Schaller, Elmer O., The Historical Background of Merchandise Management Accounting, Spring 1958, 16
Schwamb, Herbert H., Management Perspective of Retailing, Summer 1951, 68
Schwartzman, Daniel, Fixtures for Self-Selection in Soft Goods, Summer 1960, 88
Scott, Elaine C., Let's Spread the Word About Retail Training, Summer 1951, 68
Settel, Irving, Why Retailers Bypass Television, Winter 1955–1956, 180
Sewell, Sallie (see Rahr, Frederic H. and Robichaud, Robert J.)
Shaw, Steven J., Special Services for Latin-American Shoppers, Winter 1954–1955, 179
———, Store Press Publicists and Their Work on the Women's Pages, Winter 1956–1957, 166
Shiele, Irene (see Smykay, Edward W.)
Sielaff, T. J., Forecasting Retail Sales, Summer 1955, 91
Slater, Edward L. (see Mason, Jack)
Slesinger, Reuben, Advanced Price Notification as an Anti-Inflationary Measure, Spring 1960, 41
Smith, Bernard W., Merchandise Management Accounting as a Tool for Merchandising, September 1958, 38
——— and Herman Radolf, How Machines Improve Merchandising, Spring 1959, 45
Smith, Paul E., How to Make Store Training Work, Spring 1953, 31
———, Trends in Branch-Store Organization, Fall 1956, 123
——— and Eugene J. Kelley. Competing Retail Systems: The Shopping Center and the Central Business District, Spring 1960, 11
Smykay, Edward W. and Irene Shiele, Minimizing Transportation Costs with Shipper Co-operatives, Summer 1959, 100
Spector, S. I., Chain Store Human Relations, Winter 1954–1955, 161
———, Retail Management in Israel, Summer 1959, 85
Spriegel, William R. and Elizabeth Lanham, Job Evaluation in Department Stores, Summer 1951, 79
Stedman, Gordon H., Customer Viewpoint as a Guide to Store Operation, Fall 1953, 135
———, Determining Attitudes and Habits of Retail Shoppers, Fall 1951, 133
———, How Are You Handling the Parking Problem?, Summer 1952, 69
———, Impact of Shopping Centers Locally and Downtown (part of a series), Spring 1956, 25
———, The Rise of Shopping Centers (part of a series), Spring 1955, 11
———, Shopping Centers and Local Government—Collision or Co-operation (part of a series), Summer 1955, 77

Steinberger, Harry L. (see Ellsworth, T. Dart)
Stoner, J. K., Small Independent Retailers Need a Training Program in Retail Accounting, Summer 1954, 57
Stonier, Charles E., Off-Street Parking to Attract Downtown Shoppers, Fall 1960, 145
Strahl, Robert M., How Department Heads Spend Their In-Store Time, Winter 1960–1961, 207

Tarpey, Lawrence, S. Advertising Overhead in Retailing, Winter 1960–1961, 179
Thompson, Willard M., How Expert Salespeople Sell, Fall 1955, 119
Thomas, Nancy, Those Half-Mad Hatters, Fall 1951, 118

Vogeley, Jane J., Help for the Small Businessman, Summer 1952, 85

Wasserman, Hilton N., Personnel Selection—A Viewpoint and a Method, Fall 1952, 123
Wasserman, Paul, Information Sources for the Retailer, Fall 1951, 147
Weiss, E. B., Should Department Stores Open Chains of Specialty Stores, Winter 1951, 163
Westervelt, Richard E., The Discount House Problem, Summer 1954, 69
———,To Be or Not To Be, Spring 1952, 37
———, Unions and Retailing, Summer 1956, 66
White, L. T. and Med Serif, The Retailer—Leader of Tomorrow's Community, Fall 1959, 153
Willer, Stanley L., Handling Customer Returns, Winter 1954–1955, 175
Wingate, Isabel B., How to Get Your Money's Worth When Buying Sheets, Spring 1953, 21
———, Textile Testing with Limited Equipment, Summer 1950, 80
——— and Ralph S. Burkholder, A Case for Natural Fibers in Men's Furnishings, Spring 1954, 29
Wolf, Jack S., Space Planning in Department Stores—An Exploratory Approach, Winter 1960–1961, 182
Wolff, Jack, Multi-Planning, Fall 1953, 121
Woll, Milton, Automation and Mechanization of Materials Handling, Spring 1959, 37